

We recently moved from Las Vegas to Southern California and continue to visit Nevada frequently for medical appointments. Having access to L.A.-based traffic reports on XM is a great benefit, because we use the reports to help us decide how to navigate the freeways on our return trips and find alternate routes when we're out of range of the L.A. news stations. Please continue to let XM provide us with the information we need to travel safely.